

Al Capone and the 1933 World's Fair by William Elliott Hazelgrove

This book is a historical look at Chicago during the darkest days of the Great Depression. The story of Chicago fighting the hold that organized crime had on the city to be able to put on The 1933 World's Fair.

977.3 HAZELGROVE

You Can Fly by Carole Boston Weatherford

This tells the story of the Tuskegee Airmen: pioneering African-American pilots who triumphed in the skies and past the color barrier during World War II.

811.6 WEATHERFORD

The Science of Poop and Farts by Alex Woolf

In this gut-wrenching guide we will explore how we digest our food, and all the strange side effects of this complex and fascinating process including burps and farts.

Easy 612.3 WOOLF

Fraction Frenzy by Rob Colson

Learn all about fractions, factorials, combinations, and fractals and how we use math to break the world into bits, all in the pages of this book.

513.2 COLSON