

A Soldier Muses by Richard E. Young

This book possess the memories of a young man during Second World War. It is believed that the additional writings in this book that began as a WWII memory, really round out the very full life of Dick Young.

MH 940.54 YOUNG

Gastrophysics by Charles Spence

This is a book guaranteed to make you look at your plate in a whole new way. It is accessible science at its best, fascinating to anyone in possession of an appetite.

641.013 SPENCE

Andrew Jackson and the Miracle of New Orleans by Brian Kilmeade

In this book, readers will finish with a new understanding of one of our greatest generals and a renewed appreciation for the brave men who fought so that America could one day stretch "from sea to shining sea."

973.52 KILMEADE

The Art of Misdiagnosis by Gayle Brandeis

This memoir delves into the tangled mysteries of disease, mental illness, and suicide and comes out the other side with grace.

616.89 BRANDEIS