

African American Politicians & Civil Rights Activists by Joanne Randolph

This book follows the leading lights in the struggle for freedom and equality, those who showed the world a better way forward and led the way down the very difficult road to greater equality, freedom, and civil rights.

323.092 RANDOLPH

E-Waste by David M. Barker

This book describes to readers the problems posed by electronic waste, the causes of the problem, efforts to stem it, and the possible negative side effects of electronic waste recycling.

363.738 BARKER

Invasive Species by Lisa J. Amstutz

This book describes the issues posed by invasive species, the causes of the problem, and efforts to stem it, and identifies invasive animal, plant, and fish species.

578.62 AMSTUTZ

Nordic Skiing by Ellen Labrecque

In this book, readers will explore the sport through the lenses of History, Geography, Civics, and Economics. Readers will also be able to look at the history, basic philosophies, and geography of Nordic skiing.

796.93 LARECQUE