

African American Entrepreneurs by Philip Wolny

This book profiles black entrepreneurs in United States history, including Absalom Jones, Berry Gordy, and Oprah Winfrey, and describes the adversity many overcame to succeed in American business.

338.092 WOLNY

Graffiti by Anna Collins

This book follows the history of graffiti, alongside its controversial acceptance as a modern art form, and some of the famous graffiti artists working in different countries around the world.

751.73 COLLINS

African Americans in Film by Camille R. Michaels

This book explores the causes of the systemic oppression that has made it difficult for African Americans to break into the movie business.

791.43 MICHAELS

U.S. Marshalls by Abby Colich

In this book, readers will get a short introduction to the U.S. Marshal Service, including what it does and a bit of its history. Then readers will learn the job functions that are involved in being a U.S. Marshal and what it takes to become one.

363.28 COLICH