The Great Pretender by Susannah Cahalan

In the 1970s, a Stanford psychologist and seven other people went undercover into asylums around America to test the legitimacy of the psychiatry's labels. Only released from the asylums when they'd 'proven' their sanity, their mission changed our understanding of madness forever.

A Woman of No Importance by Sonia Purnell

Called 'the most dangerous of all Allied spies' by the Gestapo, Virginia Hall was the first Allied woman deployed behind enemy lines and—despite her prosthetic leg—helped to light the flame of the French Resistance.

Through My Eyes by Tim Tebow and Nathan Whitaker

Former University of Florida star quarterback, 2010 first-round draft pick for the Denver Broncos, and devout Christian Tim Tebow tells the story of his faith, life, and career in football.

Life After Suicide by Jennifer Ashton

Part memoir and part comforting guide, Jennifer opens up about the suicide of her ex-husband and includes stories of others with the hope that her experience and words can inspire those faced with the unthinkable to persevere.
