If I Had Your Face by Frances Cha

Four young women in contemporary Korea: Kyuri, who entertains businessmen while they drink; Miho, who studied art in New York; Ara, with a friend saving for a plastic surgery to hopefully change her life; and Wonna, a newlywed trying to have a baby that she doesn't know if she can afford to raise.

Blue Ridge Sunrise by Denise Hunter

Zoe Collins finds herself back in Copper Creek with the responsibility to run her family's peach orchard after her grandma dies. But tensions begin to rise between Zoe and Cruz Huntley, who never quite got over his first love, Zoe, even five years later.

The Nantucket Inn by Pamela Kelley

Lisa Hodges—with no money due to her dead husband's gambling addiction, no in-demand skills, and being virtually unemployable—desperately needs to succeed, especially since she wants to stay close to her four children who have problems of their own.

The Night Agent by Matthew Quirk

Young FBI Agent Peter Sutherland works in the White House monitoring an emergency line for a call that has not—and might never—come. Until tonight. At 1:05 a.m., a terrified young woman, whose aunt and uncle have just been murdered, calls the number they gave her before their deaths with urgent instructions.
