

These two books are e-books and can be accessed through our Overdrive library.

The Last Flight by Julie Clark

Behind closed doors, Claire's seemingly perfect husband has a harsh temper. A chance meeting in an airport bar with Eva, a woman with equally dire circumstances, leads Claire and Eva to switch tickets with the hope of a head start into a new life somewhere far away.

The Read-Aloud Family by Sarah Mackenzie

Reading aloud strengthens family connections and is one of the best ways to be fully present with our children. In this book, you will find the inspiration and resources to start a read-aloud movement in your home.

The next two books are physical copies and can be checked out through our Front Door Pick Up. Email or call us for more information.

Yellow Bird by Sierra Crane Murdoch

This gripping true story tells of Lissa Yellow Bird's—whose home is a North Dakota Indian reservation recently transformed by the Bakken oil boom—hunt for a oil worker who disappeared from his reservation worksite.

The Missing American by Kwei Quartey

After Emma Djan's dreams crash down, she becomes a detective at a private agency in Accra—not the future she imagined, but her best option. Meanwhile, Gordon Tilson, a widower in Washington DC, has disappeared after going to visit a young Ghanaian widow he's met online, and his son Derek is determined to find him.