Haben by Haben Girma

Haben, the first Deafblind graduate of Harvard Law School, uses her talents to advocate for people with disabilities. Originally from Eritrea, she has explored numerous places and accomplished many things in her pursuit of the keys to connection and belonging.

More Myself by Alicia Keys

Away from the spotlight, musician and singer Alicia Keys grapples with heartache—from her relationship with her father to the people-pleasing nature of her early career. Now she's finally exploring the question: Who am I, really?

You Can't Catch Me by Catherine McKenzie

At an airport bar, Jessica meets a woman with an identical name and birthdate. It appears to be just an odd coincidence—until she finds her bank account drained and her personal information stolen.

A Star Is Bored by Byron Lane

Charlie is tense as he prepares for a wild job interview. Kathi is an icon, most known as Priestess Talara in a blockbuster sci-fi film and as Outrageous Hollywood Royalty. She needs an assistant, he needs a lifeline.
